

Summary of Speaker Comments at the December 8, 2003 RCWPG Meeting

1. Max Shumake, Region D landowner
Mr. Shumake signed up to speak but declined to speak when called upon.
2. David Nabors, Region D landowner
Mr. Nabors told the RCWPG that he wants to work with them. Mr. Nabors asked Region C to look at what the City of Dallas is doing with aquifer storage and recovery in the Trinity River. He wants Region C to look at more wetlands projects similar to the TRWD wetlands project at Richland-Chambers Reservoir. He also asked if Region C could force the Legislature to answer the remaining questions about designating unique stream segments.
